THE GUESTHOUSE

Do you need to take a break with your work team, in a fresh environment, to build better team cohesion? Or do you need time away from the daily work routines that can sometimes limit creativity to set your strategic goals? Maybe you feel like your team could do with a timely resetting of goals, facilitated by supportive coaching from highly experienced and qualified professional trainers?

If so, then arrange for your team to have a place to work and reform together in the beautiful Atherton Tablelands, staying at our comfortable historic guest house looking over beautiful green farmland. Locally known as The Travellers Rest Guesthouse, this lovingly cared for property built in the 1930s still exudes country hospitality and a touch of yesteryear romance, today.

Once you arrive at Travellers Rest (Malanda Valley Corporate Retreat), you will be welcomed by our friendly staff. Our team will lead you on a guided tour of the guesthouse, including the meeting room and bedrooms, the garden and outdoor campfire area, the billiard and games rooms, our farmland animal friends, and then settle you into one of the charming period-decorated rooms.

As guests of the Travellers Rest Guesthouse, you will continue to be looked after by our team that includes hospitality staff, trainers & personal care assistants. We can take your team on day trips to relax in some of the surrounding areas such as Lake Eacham, Curtin Fig Tree, Yungaburra Village, Cheese and Chocolate Factory, Tea Factory, Crater Lakes, Herberton Historic Village and many more beautiful locations.

You may opt to use your own staff to provide training or sessions, or choose to have one of our own fully qualified training professionals to offer sessions on one or more of the following topics:

- Leadership and management - emotional intelligence, team work, work-life balance, customer focus, strategic planning etc.
- Supporting children and family while working in a fast paced environment

- Human Resource (HR) skills - upskilling workers, personality profiling and job matching, conflict resolution in the workplace
- Health and wellbeing for workers - managing drinking, exercise, mental health and recreation, as well as creating a healthy work-life balance
- Social entrepreneurship - giving back to the community

Whatever it is that your business wants to achieve, we can help you to accomplish it at Malanda Valley Corporate Retreat Atherton Tablelands Queensland.

Let us pick you up in our Courtesy Bus from the Cairns Airport. It's just a short scenic drive from Cairns up to the Tablelands.

Call or email our Corporate Events Coordinator now to receive a customised quote to suit your business requirements.

Vanda and Jodi, look forward to welcoming you and your colleagues to the Travellers Rest Guesthouse.

5 Reasons that Businesses Need to Retreat

Break down walls

Corporate retreats are a brilliant opportunity for your staff to break down interpersonal barriers, engage in brainstorming, and accelerate productivity. Leave the stagnation of regular tasks and thinking behind! Use us as an innovative getaway that encourages creativity and uncover your next big idea.

You don't know what you don't know

Corporate retreats create the perfect environment for teams to mingle with other staff that they may not otherwise meet. If your company has employees in multiple locations, attending a corporate retreat will help assist you to create team cohesion by allowing staff to connect and converse.

Well worth the investment

A team of highly skilled employees contributes to an effective and productive workplace. Upskilling employees is an investment in your company's future. Corporate retreats are a great opportunity to build your team's skill sets and group cohesion.

Fast-track your business goals

Use this as an opportunity to get away from day-to-day activities to get fresh ideas for your strategic planning.

Crisis prevention and improved business outcomes

Team activities are a great way for co-workers to explore issues that they may encounter in the workplace. So, involving staff in a retreat is a great way to help them collaborate together. Retreats are a great crisis prevention tool.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

1. Historic Village Herberton - (+61 7 4096 2002)

The Historic Village in Herberton is only a short, 30 minute drive from Travellers Rest Guesthouse. Showcasing Australia's rich and diverse history this outdoor pioneer museum is testament to North Queensland's vibrant history. The Village collects, preserves and displays fascinating historical exhibits from across Australia. The Village currently has over 50 original buildings that date from Herberton's foundation years.

Website: www.historicvillageherberton.com.au

2. Crystal Caves - (+61 7) 4091 2365

The Crystal Caves is one of Australia's top mineralogical museums displaying over 600 of the most intriguing crystallized mineral and fossil specimens from around the globe. Thousands of people visit the museum every year, to bask in the glory of the wonderful crystals, and to crack open their own geode.

Website: www.crystalcaves.com.au

3. Shaylee Strawberries - (+61 7 4091 2962)

Shaylee Strawberries is located on the Atherton Tablelands, between Atherton and the historic Township of Yungaburra. Shaylee's rich red volcanic soil and temperate weather conditions are just right for the cultivation of large succulent strawberries. Visit Shaylee Strawberries and pick your own strawberries or choose from the range of products at the shop, including rich strawberry and plum jam. It's a perfectly decadent way to relax during your retreat.

7. Millaa Millaa Waterfalls

The Millaa Millaa Waterfalls have been described as the most scenic falls in Australia. A trip to the waterfalls is a great way to unwind and get back in touch with nature. Far North Queensland is full of natural wonders - rainforest and lakes and wonderful, forest-fresh air.

Website: www.millaamillaa.com/waterfalls

4. Paronella Park - (+61 7 4065 0000)

Paronella Park is a fascinating castle and grounds built by Jose Paronella in the early 1900s. Take a tour through the area near Mena Creek and marvel at the magnificent grounds, tennis courts, falls, bridges and tunnel, all nestled in amongst lush rainforest surrounds.

Website: www.paronellapark.com.au

5. Malanda Dairy Centre

Relax, breathe and enjoy the country atmosphere. The Malanda Dairy Centre has been the centre of modern cuisine and meeting place for the historic town of Malanda for nearly 10 years. Owners and operators Jenny & Jerry Browne have a long history of running a variety of fine dining establishments. The venue has a lot to offer - the museum is a wonderful collection of local family stories beautifully presented by the Eacham Historical Society.

Website: www.malandadairycentre.com

6. The Australian Platypus Park & Tarzali Lakes Aquaculture Centre - (+61 7) 4097 2713

The Park and its natural surroundings are a place of interest for families and groups wanting to participate in activities such as platypus tours, fishing, camping and dining at the Smokehouse Cafe. The Australian Platypus Park is home to a thriving platypus population. These wonderful creatures can be found in a spring fed pond surrounded by lush tropical vegetation. This magnificent setting draws in enthusiastic visitors from all over the globe. All Platypus viewing is done through a self-guided tour.

MEANDER VALLEY CORPORATE RETREAT

MOLE CREEK - TASMANIA

Give your team a place to work and reform together at the stunning Meander Valley Retreat in Northern Tasmania. Locally known as the Mole Creek Guesthouse, it was built in the township of Mole Creek in 1890, the year the railway arrived. This lovingly cared for property still exudes its Old World charm today. Even moreso now since beautiful landscaped gardens were established. Silver birch trees, willows and numerous garden ornamentals now surround the guest house and the quiet stream that runs through the property.

Once you arrive at the Mole Creek Guesthouse (Meander Valley Retreat) you will be welcomed our team who will lead you on a guided tour of the guesthouse including the meeting and breakout rooms, the Pepperberry Café (our gourmet caterer), the Gift Shop (selling Tassie treats - Anver's famous Chocolates and Fudges, Ashgrove cheese and fruit pastes, Gourmet jams, relishes, sauces both sweet and savoury), and then settle everyone into their charming, comfy rooms.

As guests of the Mole Creek Guesthouse, you will continue to be looked after by our team of coordinators, qualified trainers, private drivers and massage therapists. We can take your team on day trips to relax in some of the surrounding areas such as Cradle Mountain, Chudleigh, Sheffield, Penguin and many more beautiful locations.

We can also hire external trainers who can bring other specialist skills to support the goals of your retreat. Whatever it is that your business wants to achieve, we can help you to accomplish it at Meander Valley Retreat, Mole Creek Tasmania.

Our staff can pick up your team up from the Launceston Airport. To get to Mole Creek you will drive on the Great Western Tiers Route which is a scenic 52 minute drive from Launceston.
